

Inaugural meeting of the South African Global Health Trials Regional Faculty
 Hosted by the Department of Medicine, University of Cape Town

Critical issues in conducting non-commercially sponsored clinical research in South Africa

Friday February 1st 2013, The Klein Schuur Room, New Groote Schuur Hospital

08:00	Registration
08:30	Welcome and opening remarks	Chair: Professor Karen Barnes, Deputy Dean of Research, Health Sciences Faculty, UCT
08:40	The Revitalisation of health research in South Africa	Professor Bongani Mayosi, Head of the Department of Medicine, UCT
09:00	Supporting Clinical Research Centres: A PDP Model	Dr Annalene Nel, Executive Vice President, Chief Medical Officer, International Partnership for Microbicides
09:20	Options for developing in-house data management capacity	Lesley Workman, Coordinator Pharmacology module, Worldwide Antimalarial Resistance Network
09:40	Global Health Trials aiding career-development in resource-poor settings	Elizabeth Allen, Regional Faculty member, Global Health Trials
10:00	Break
10:30	Towards the second programme of EDCTP	Dr Michael Makanga, Director South-South Cooperation and Head of Africa Office, European and Developing Countries Clinical Trials Partnership
10:50	The Clinical Trials Unit: a UK model for managing investigator-led trials	Dr Delva Shamley, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Health Sciences, UCT
11:10	Panel discussion with speakers How can we sustain experienced clinical research teams in non-commercial institutions?
12:00	Lunch
13:00	Introduction to afternoon sessions	Chair: Professor Marc Blockman, Chair of the Human Research Ethics Committee, Faculty of Health Sciences, UCT
13:10	Promoting responsible research conduct: 'compliance' versus 'an ethic of responsibility'	Dr Lyn Horn, Research Integrity Officer, University of Stellenbosch
13:30	"Reciprocal monitoring"; a cost-effective model for 'in-house' quality control	Tamzin Furtado, Global Health Trials Project Manager, University of Oxford
13:50	Outsourced quality control for clinical trials: essential or discretionary?	Dr Lynn Katsoulis, Clinical Operations Manager, Triclinium Project Management (Pty) Ltd
14:10	Sponsorship: better the devil you know...	Dr Delva Shamley, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Cape Town
14:30	Break
15:00	Panel discussions with speakers How should South African non-commercial institutions take on the roles and responsibilities of clinical trial Sponsor?
15:45	Summary and close	