

INTERMEDIATE OUTCOME

TECHNICAL CAPABILITY ENHANCED

Partner public health technical capabilities enhanced in core IHR capacities at the national and regional level.

Plans, strategies, SOPs, and guidelines for the prevention, detection, and response to public health emergencies are strengthened.

Improved delivery and advocacy of sustainability measures, in public health systems, at the national and regional level.

SUSTAINABLE PUBLIC HEALTH SYSTEMS DEVELOPED

Strengthened system coordination and collaboration through in country partners at the national and regional level.

Strengthened multi-sectoral One Health collaboration across human health, animal health, and environmental health sector for improved IHR resilience.

Strengthened engagement with One HMG strategic priorities.

LEADERSHIP STRENGTHENED

Public health leaders from all genders are empowered and equipped to implement IHR in core capacity areas.

Public health leadership strengthened across IHR core domains for enhanced multisector coordination, communications, and promoting health security.

Public health networks are established and strengthened for improved IHR coordination, at the national and regional level.

LONG TERM OUTCOME

- Improved global health security through compliance with the International Health Regulations.
- Improved prevention, detection, and response to public health emergencies in partner countries and regionally through capable public health institutions, systems, and networks.
- The global population including in the UK, are safer and more secure from global health security threats.
- Effective, sustainable, and resilient public health strategies, systems, and networks are developed.
- Collaboration fostered across HMG contributing towards UK HMG strategic leadership.

GHS THEORY OF CHANGE OUTCOMES

PURPOSE

Strong Global and regional governance & leadership, for GHS with strong role for multilaterals

PURPOSE

Strengthened all-hazards health protection systems, capacity and procedures to implement IHR (2005)

IMPACT

Strong and resilient national systems with core IHR capabilities

IMPACT

Improved global health security with strengthened capacity at national, regional and global level

* ALL IHR STRENGTHENING OUTPUTS AND ACTIVITIES ARE OPERATIONALISED IN ALIGNMENT WITH THE PRINCIPLES OF WORKING FRAMEWORK