

LEADERSHIP ONLINE WORKSHOP

Topic: There's a leader in all of us

26th – 27th May 2022

Dr Félix KOUKOUKILA-KOUSSOUNDA

- ❑ Definition (Leadership, Leader);
- ❑ Core values of a scientific Leader;
- ❑ Sharing experience.

Definition

□ Leadership:

Warren BENNIS

□ Leader: someone who can positively guide, influence and inspire others while also being inspired by them

Core values of a scientific Leader

- Curiosity and the wheel of learning more
- Passion of doing the right things
- Ability to influence
- Ability to inspire
- Honesty, fairness and respect
- Sharing his knowledge and experience

Core values of a scientific Leader

- ❑ Taking good actions at the right time

Sharing experience

- ❑ Often use 3 leadership styles
 - Transformational
 - Autocratic
 - Democratic

Sharing experience

- ❑ During a phase IIIb/IV clinical trial: Leading a new team, we inspired the other teams that had years of experience on conducting clinical trials
- ❑ At university: Inspiring students and getting them to act at the right time
- ❑ At the National Public Health Laboratory: When coordinating molecular screening of SARS-CoV-2

Thanks for your attention

