

Grant Writing in Research for Nurses and Midwives in Africa Agenda

Uganda Workshop, September 2023

TIME	TALK	Panellists
8:00–9:00 am	The arrival of participants and guests
9:00– 9:15 am	Welcome remarks and overview of the event	Faith Nawagi (RN, BSN, MIPH) Ph.D. Scholar Health Professions Education Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda
9:15–9:30 am	Overview of Global Research Nurses and ARCH/ GHN	Faith Nawagi GRN Africa
9:30–10:00 am	Keynote address: Inspiration of a senior nurse that has successfully acquired research grants	Dr. Scovia Mbalinda RN, BSN, MPRH, Ph.D . Lecturer Makerere University Dept. of Nursing and Midwifery Principal Investigator for various research grants
10:00–10:30 am	Tea Break
10:30–11:30 am	Defining grant writing – the context and components of a grant application	Faith Nawagi
11:30–12:30 pm	Key factors for decision-making by funding organizations	Dr. Roy Mubuuke Deputy Chair School of Medicine, IRB Makerere University Editor BMC Medical Education Grant Application Reviewer / recipient of numerous grants Senior Lecturer MAKCHS
12:30–1:30 pm	Lunch
1:30–2:00 pm	Principles of successful grant writing	Dr. Roy Mubuuke
2:00–2:30 pm	Q & A and sharing experiences	All participants
3:00–3:30 pm	Closing Remarks	Event Team / Faith Nawagi
4:00 pm	End of workshop	