

WEBINAR SERIES

Musculoskeletal conditions (MSK) are common worldwide, and their impact on individuals is diverse.

To address the importance of MSK issues, a webinar series is scheduled for 31 January and 28 February.

This series aims to initiate early discussions and involve key stakeholders in addressing this critical matter, paving the way for further attention and awareness.

Register here to join the webinars