

Research Management in the building of the TGHN LAC consortium

Workshop - TGHN Research Management

28th February 2024

Audience: Project Managers and Project Coordinators LAC Consortium

The Global Health Network - Zoom platform

To ensure a productive and engaging discussion, we kindly request that all participants come prepared with a brief three-minute introduction. This introduction should cover three key aspects:

1. A brief introduction to your role and your organization.
2. An overview of your current participation in the TGHN LAC consortium.
3. The perceived needs in project management, the challenges you have encountered so far and the type of support that would allow you to overcome these obstacles and achieve your objectives.
