

Critical Issues In Conducting Non-commercially Sponsored Clinical Research In Peru: a one-day skills sharing workshop

Date: Wednesday, June 11 2014

Location: Melia Hotel, Salaverry 2599, San Isidro, Lima

Free to attend, but prior registration is essential – email your name, job title and place of work to info@globalhealthtrials.org

Talks to include:

♦ Clinical studies versus Clinical Trials. Definitions, regulations, standards ♦ Training and capacity building in health research in Peru ♦ Practical options for developing in-house data management capacity ♦ Promoting responsible research conduct and regulatory compliance in Peru ♦ Health research in Peru. ♦ How can we sustain experienced clinical research teams in non-commercial institutions? ♦ Global Health Trials aiding career development in resource-poor settings ♦ Appropriate delegation of the Sponsor's responsibilities in investigator-led clinical research ♦ Monitoring and quality control ♦

Speakers will Include:

- Trudie Lang, Global Health Trials Project, University of Oxford
- Claudio Lanatta, NAMRU 6
- Andres G. Lescano, NAMRU-6
- A. Roxana Lescano, NAMRU 6
- Tamzin Furtado, Global Health Trials Project, University of Oxford
- Hector H. Garcia, Director, Center for Global Health -Tumbes, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia.
- Eduardo Gotuzzo, Instituto de Medicina Tropical Alexander Von Humboldt, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia
- Ciro Maguiña (Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia),
- Jaime Miranda (CRONICAS, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia)
- Giancarlo Sal y Rosas, PhD, Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Peru.
- Eduardo Ticona (Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos)

GlobalHealthTrials.org

Research, Guidance, Training, Professional Development & Resources

