

Clinical Research in disease outbreaks: a Collaborative Skills Sharing Workshop

Free to attend, and applicable to the whole research team – investigators, clinicians, nurses, data managers, lab staff, research coordinators, counsellors – all welcome

Topics to Include:

- How to ensure quality in clinical research outbreak settings
- Ethical considerations with Ebola as a case study
- How the Global Health Network can facilitate your research (and it's free!)
- Public Health Significance of Outbreak research preparedness
- role of research nurses in epidemic outbreaks and pragmatic research
- How Nigeria was able to respond to Ebola outbreak

DATE: Wednesday 26th November 2014

VENUE: Yaba Local Council Development Area Primary Health Center, 198 Herbert Macaulay, Adekunle, Yaba, Lagos

Free to Attend, but prior registration is ESSENTIAL. To register, please send your name and job title to info@globalhealthtrials.org.